TEACHER EVALUATION

Name of student: _____ Grade: _____

Your name: _____ Subject you teach: _____

How long have you know this student? _____

The items below ask for your impression of this student's intellectual development, relationships within the school community, and emotional and social growth. Your evaluation helps us determine how this student will benefit and value from a summer camp activity.

All information that you furnish will be kept confidential and is very helpful in making our selections.

Please provide us with your considered assessment of this student. Next to each item please write a number which you feel the student has earned in you experiences with him or her. We would anticipate that most students would receive a 3 or 4, with only the very top students earning a 5.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

We have been giving some extra weight to students who have never attended a camp, have not had lessons, and who might have some financial need. Your comments relating to how important this camp experience might be to the skills, feeling of confidence and the level of self-esteem also add weight to our consideration. Please take a moment to provide a few sentences that address the student's interest in his or her instrument or activity, as well as providing information that you feel we should take into consideration. Thank you so much!

We know this is a time consuming project, but your insights play a significant role in our decisions.
